Great Clips Offers Free Haircuts to Middle Tennessee Flood Victims

Nashville, TN – 5-13-10

Catastrophes like the recent flooding in the Nashville area bring life to a standstill for many victims. Great Clips understands that when such tragedies occur that the community's focus must be turned to the big things. Because of this, Great Clips salons in the Nashville area want to help bring peace of mind by making one of life's little things, getting a haircut, one less worry for disaster victims.

Now through May 31, flood victims can stop by one of 41 participating Middle Tennessee Great Clips salons and receive a FREE HAIRCUT. Simply stop into the salon and provide a name, address and flood status of home or car to receive a FREE HAIRCUT. Visit greatclips.com for your nearest location.

Great Clips believes in Great Communities, and we are proud to be a part of this one.
